NANCY IS WORKING HARD FOR HORSELL

Nancy Martin has been selected as your Conservative candidate for next May's local elections. She is campaigning to be part of your Horsell Conservative team.

■ Nancy is from Horsell and attended the Village School and Junior School. She is a committed campaigner and is determined to champion local causes.

She is married to Ben, a pastor at the Coign Church in Woking.

Having worked in Parliament as a researcher and now in public affairs, Nancy has seen first-hand the impact political decisions have on people's lives and the importance of local accountability.

Nancy said: "If I am elected, I will work to be your accessible, available Councillor with a strong local voice for residents.

"We are so lucky to have a great Horsell team with Beryl Hunwicks and Colin Kemp. I would be joining a team that has achieved a great deal for the village and the ward.

"But there is always more to do and I would like to work with our hardworking team to ensure that Horsell remains a fantastic place to live."

Nancy will put Horsell first if she is elected in May

News from Horsell

QUEEN ELIZABETH GARDENS PROGRESS

■ The landscaping work at Queen Elizabeth Gardens is being completed this autumn and is welcomed by residents. In addition, plans are going ahead to develop an extra playing area for local youngsters.

"The gardens look fantastic following the work being done there," said Nancy. "This is a testament to the dedication of Councillors Beryl Hunwicks and Colin Kemp. They listened to residents' concerns about the potential issues around a Mixed Use Games Area and I'm delighted that this will now be an open green space instead."

The site will now be open green space

COLIN AND BERYL ENDORSE NANCY

■ Nancy Martin has been selected as the Conservative candidate following the decision of Horsell Councillor Anne Murray not to seek re-election in 2018.

Beryl said: "I have known Nancy for many years as she grew up in Horsell and I know she would be a very strong addition to our Horsell team, working with us for this vibrant community.

"We have seen many younger families moving to the area in recent years, attracted by our village community and the great facilities here. Nancy is very much a part of that community and I welcome her involvement."

HIGH STREET AT THE HEART OF HORSELL

■ One of Horsell's key strengths is its vibrant and historic High Street. On their doorstep, residents are fortunate to be well-served by some of the best shops, cafés and services in Woking.

If elected, Nancy will work with local retailers to protect the popularity, character and charm of Horsell High Street.

Nancy said: "I always enjoy our shops in Horsell, especially stocking up in Boz's, which I think sells the best-quality fruit and vegetables in town!

"The High Street is at the heart of life here and I want to see it thrive for many years to come.

"Promoting not just Woking Town Centre but also our villages and their independent shops is the key to keeping our identity."

MOOR'S NOOK APARTMENTS NEAR COMPLETION

■ The work on 34 new retirement apartments in Horsell Moor is progressing well with work expected to finish shortly and the apartments to be available in December.

"As Woking becomes an increasingly popular place to live, it is vital to provide housing that meets the needs of people of all ages as long as this is done sensitively," said Horsell Councillor Colin Kemp.

"I know that Moor's Nook will be a popular location and I look forward to welcoming new residents into Horsell and seeing their community thrive."
